

Other National Culture Change Related Organizations

The following national organizations can also help your organization with its culture change journey.

Action Pact

Action Pact is a unique culture change company recognized for developing the innovative Household Model. They help transform institutionalized living environments for frail elders and the disabled into warm, pleasant households or friendly neighborhoods. Their expert services include pre-feasibility analysis (integrated financial, design and programming); full design and development; and consultation and training to transform the organization's culture, structure, and household operations. The result: Residents enjoy all that home offers. They direct their own lives, experience daily pleasures, and continue to live with meaning and purpose. Go to www.actionpact.com or call 414-258-3649 for more information.

The Eden Alternative[®]

A leader in the culture change movement for over 20 years, The Eden Alternative[®] is a global, non-profit organization dedicated to creating quality of life for Elders and their care partners, wherever they live and work. Through training, practical tools, consultation, and outreach, their proven approach to care offers person-directed strategies that put the person first. From the nursing home to the neighborhood street, The Eden Alternative's adaptable philosophy transforms care in a variety of living environments by emphasizing ongoing growth and possibility and the right to thrive, not just survive. To learn more, go to www.edenalt.org.

The Green House[®] Project

For over a decade, healthcare providers have trusted The Green House Project experts to help envision, create, and optimize caring homes for meaningful lives. Their results? The new standard in long-term care, with national brand power, higher measurable quality outcomes, consumer demand, and caregiver satisfaction. Go to: <http://www.thegreenhouseproject.org/> or call 410-246-3801 for more information.

PHI

PHI's organizational change and workforce development consultants bring a unique focus to transforming long-term care organizations: we build skills across your organization to ensure that all staff, from the nursing assistants to the CEO, has the leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills necessary to deliver high-quality, person-centered care. Our full-service consulting includes assessing your organizational strengths, building a participatory change process, providing executive coaching, training staff, and redesigning your organization and facilities to express your unique culture and ensure long-term success. For more information on how PHI can help you transform your culture, contact Susan Misiorski, National Director of Coaching and Consulting, smisiorski@phinational.org. Or visit our website: www.PHInational.org/consulting.